Independent Bookstore Day - Saturday, April 27th

What is Independent Bookstore Day?

Independent Bookstore Day is a one-day national party that takes place at indie bookstores across the country on the last Saturday in April. Every store is unique and independent, and every party is different.

Why are we celebrating independent bookstores?

Independent bookstores are not just stores, they're community centers and local anchors run by passionate owners. They are entire universes of ideas that contain the possibility of real serendipity. They are lively performance spaces and quiet places where aimless perusal is a day well spent.

In a world of tweets and algorithms and pageless digital downloads, bookstores are not a dying anachronism. They are living, breathing organisms that continue to grow and expand. In fact, there are more Bookstores this year than there were last year. And they are at your service.
